Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT

(RAO INDERJIT SINGH)

(a) to (c) : Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has informed that a total number of 1,71,272 persons were registered under New Pattern Registration Scheme (NPRS)-1979. After the registration, allotments to registrants under NPRS were made through draw of lots. Thereafter, in year the 1981, priority numbers were assigned to the remaining 1, 65,561 registrants and allotments were made to them in due course, as per the terms & conditions of the scheme. DDA has further informed that 38,184 allotments were subsequently cancelled for different reasons. The cancelled flats were included in the subsequent draws/scheme for allotment.

(d) & (e): DDA has informed that no instances of corruption have been reported.
